Editors Predict Humphery-Nixon Race For President

WASHINGTON (AP) — A poll of 80 newspaper editors has found a majority predicting Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon will be their partys' nominees in the presidential race.

Humphrey, still silent on his political plans, was stamped a better than 2-to-1 favorite over Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., in a random Associated Press poll of 80 editors attending the American Society of Newspaper Editors' annual convention.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., like Kennedy a declared candidate for the Democratic nomination, didn't receive a single vote in the sampling.

On the Republican side, Nixon—the only declared GOP candidate—was a prohibitive favorite over such potential challengers as New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Gov. Ronald Reagan of California.

Those picking Humphrey credited him with the advantages of an incumbent administration's party following plus backing from labor and solid support in the South.

"I think the organization will take it in the end. It usually does," said H. P. McCall, editorial page editor of the New Orleans Times-Picayune.

Editors were asked who they thought would win the nomination of each party, rather than who they preferred personally.

These were the results on the Democratic side: Humphrey, 46; Kennedy, 20; President Johnson, 4; McCarthy, 0; Undecided, 10.

The Republican sampling: Nixon, 62; Rockefeller, 14; Reagan, 2; Undecided 2.

A year ago in a poll of ASNE members Nixon enjoyed a 3-to-2 edge over Michigan Gov. George Romney, who has since bowed out of the race. President Johnson was a unanimous choice of 103 editors interviewed at the 1967 ASNE convention. He has since said he won't seek or accept renomination.

William J. Clew, managing editor of the Hartford Courant, said Humphrey would inherit the sympathy for Johnson stemming from the President's abrupt withdrawal.

Brady Black, editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, credited Humphrey with labor support. Henry Belk, editor of the Goldsboro (N.C.) News-Argus, added, "He hasn't got the horns in the South he used to wear."

Charles Pearson, editorial page editor of the Wichita Eagle and Beacon, said Humphrey will have strength "in areas where Kennedy is unpopular, which is a lot of areas."

William B. Dickinson, managing editor of the Philadelphia Bulletin, differed in choosing Kennedy as the likely nominee. Dickinson said, "I think he has charisma. I think he has many political skills. And he certainly has ample financing."

Thomas L. Boardman, editor of the Cleveland Press, was one of the four who tapped Johnson for the nomination despite his disavowal.

"I think something will come of the Vietnam peace talks and he won't be able to back away from it," Boardman said.

In making Nixon the runaway Republican pick, many of the editors agreed with Harry L. Sonneborn, managing editor of the Milwaukee Sentinel, who said, "I think he's way out in front at this time."

Humphrey was host at a White House reception for the editors Tuesday night. Rockefeller is scheduled to address the convention Thursday and Nixon will speak Friday. Sen. and Mrs. Kennedy will greet the editors' wives at Hickory Hill, their suburban McLean, Va., home, Thursday.

17 Marines Die In Battle Near Khe Sanh Base

SAIGON (AP) — Fighting accelerated in South Vietnam Tuesday and today with fresh clashes around Saigon and Khe Sanh.

The U.S. Marines on the Khe Sanh front took their heaviest casualties in two weeks—17 killed and 35 wounded—when a Leatherneck patrol attacked a North Vietnamese bunker complex four miles south-southwest of the U.S. base in the northwest corner of the country.

An estimated 40 North Vietnamese hit the Marine combat patrol with mortars and rockets and then laid down intense small arms fire. U.S. fighter-bombers and artillery pounded the enemy bunkers until the North Vietnamese escaped about midnight.

Shelling Increased

At least seven of the enemy were reported killed. The size of the Marine patrol was not given, but it could have been as small as about 60 men.

North Vietnamese artillery attacks on the Khe Sanh base, which subsided after the siege was lifted April 5, also have increased this week. Enemy gunners hurled 250 artillery and rocket rounds on Khe Sanh Tuesday, causing "moderate" damage to U.S. supply areas, U.S. spokesmen said. On Monday, about 300 mortar, rocket and artillery rounds hit the base.

To the south, allied forces pushing through jungles and rice paddies in the biggest offensive of the war reported six sharp clashes within 35 miles of Saigon. It was one of the busiest days so far in Operation Complete Victory, the 100,000-man sweep which began April 8.

Fight Near Saigon

A unit of the U.S. 9th Infantry Division killed 12 enemy in a brief fight 31 miles east of the capital. Two Americans were killed and two wounded.

Twenty-five men of a South Vietnamese airborne battalion were wounded in a battle seven miles north of Saigon. There was no report of enemy losses.

In the Mekong Delta 15 miles southwest of Saigon, a Vietnamese regional force company encountered a strong enemy force and two companies of the U.S. 199th Light Infantry Brigade were sent in as reinforcements. Three Americans and 14 government soldiers were killed along with three Vietnamese civilians. Eleven enemy dead were reported.

Guards Kill Five In Carolina Pen

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Guards opened fire on 500 demonstrating inmates at North Carolina Central Prison today, killing five and injuring 75. Five guards also were injured.

State Correction Commissioner V. Lee Bounds said the riot erupted shortly after 1:30 a.m. when the inmates set fire to a small building in a yard of the maximum security facility and "began throwing lighted torches at unarmed custodial officers."

About 45 state highway patrolmen and 50 Raleigh policemen responded to the prison's emergency call for support for prison guards.

Prisoners had staged a sit-down strike in the yard Tuesday and presented a list of grievances to Commissioner Bounds, who said he refused to negotiate with the inmates.

"I talk to inmates daily, but I do not yield to inmate demands that I do anything," Bounds said afterward.

He said the demonstrators were confined to an open yard by custodial officers armed with chemical MACE and nightsticks.

After the building was set afire, Bounds reported, the prisoners—many of them armed with homemade weapons and torches—began to advance on the guards on the grounds.

"They began throwing lighted torches on the unarmed custodial officers, and the armed custodial officers began opening fire," Bounds said.

Armed guards stationed on the walls of the 75-year-old structure in Raleigh fired down on the crowd with shotguns.

Bounds said the five officers injured in the brief battle received minor wounds from richocheting shot and prisoners' weapons. Some of the injured inmates, he said, were reported in critical condition at the prison hospital, and three men were taken to a Raleigh hospital when the prison hospital was filled to capacity.

Initial Coho Plants Made In Haymeadow

The first of 100,000 coho salmon for the Whitefish River system were dumped into the Haymeadow Creek this morning at the National Forest Campground site on County Rd. 509.

About 38,400 of the five to six inch long fish were put in the stream this morning. Planting will continue this afternoon and possibly Thursday by Thompson Hatchery crews and Michigan Conservation Dept. fish biologists.

The fish are expected to move immediately into the Whitefish River, through Little Bay de Noc and into Lake Michigan.

First returns will be this Fall when an estimated three to five percent will turn up in a premature run. The major spawning run will come in the fall of 1969.

Edna Ferber Is Dead At 82

NEW YORK (AP) — Edna Ferber, who insisted she never needed to experience a situation to write about it, leaves in death a legacy of books, plays and short stories vividly portraying the American scene.

A spinster at her death Tuesday at age 82, she once recalled in reference to her written works:

"Unmarried female writers have one advantage over their wedded female contemporaries. They can lavish more time and energy on their children, of which I, as a spinster, have had 32—or is it 33: one loses count."

Two of those "children" included "So Big," her Pulitzer Prize winning novel of a Chicago area woman truck farmer; and "Show Boat," depicting life aboard Mississippi's floating theaters, and later turned into a thrice-revived Broadway play and three motion pictures.

Over the last several months she had been ill, and in and out of hospitals. Death came in her Park Avenue apartment where she had been confined.

She is survived by her sister and two nieces. A funeral service will be held Thursday in New York.

LBJ Meets Park Today

HONOLULU (AP) — Issues of war and peace in Vietnam and tensions in the potential Korean powderkeg occupied President Johnson as he welcomed President Chung Hee Park of South Korea today for a one-day conference.

Park arrived in Honolulu well after dark in a light drizzle and was met by Johnson.

The Korean leader, attired in a gray business suit, waved at a cheering crowd that pressed against the fence.

Once formalities such as a 21-gun salute and the Korean national anthem were over, Park moved along the fence with Johnson to greet the crowd, then climbed into a helicopter to be whisked to his hotel.

The two chief executives had a full round of formal meetings set for today at the Hawaiian White House—the luxurious ocean front estate of the late industrialist Henry J. Kaiser.

Koreans In War

Park's visit coincided with important developments affecting his country and the military-diplomatic situation in Vietnam, where South Korea has nearly 50,000 troops in action:

—Two Americans and two South Koreans in uniform were killed by Communist intruders from the North last Sunday near Panmunjom. U.S. officials suggested this most serious recent incident along the demarcation line between North and South may have been deliberately timed because of the Johnson-Park meetings.

—Park, on leaving his homeland for Honolulu, lauded Johnson's new initiatives toward a Vietnam peace but seemed to express a bit of restiveness by adding "there is a limit to concessions and patience."

Allied Summit Asked

—Foreign Minister Tran Van Do of South Vietnam suggested in Saigon the allies in the Vietnam war might do well to hold a summit conference in advance of any substantive peace talks with Hanoi. American officials said it would be premature to consider such a move in the absence of any firm indication that such talks will take place.

In Washington an official who asked not to be identified said a third party might be needed to settle the issue of where the initial peace contacts should be made.

The United States and Hanoi have been squabbling over this question, with Washington contending it should be in a neutral country while Hanoi has suggested Warsaw in Communist Poland, and Phnom Penh, Cambodia.

This official's comment generated speculation the Soviet Union or the United Nations secretary-general, U Thant, might be asked to help get the talks under way.

Experts Worried:

Economy Spurts At Record Pace

WASHINGTON (AP) — A record-shattering performance by the nation's economy so far this year has government experts worried about inflation and how to sustain the boom.

They see the record as proof of the need for higher taxes.

The expansion, now in its eighth year, featured a record spurt in consumer spending and rising industrial production during the first quarter of this year but it also produced an inflation rate of four per cent annually.

"Absolutely unsustainable," was the way one analyst described the record dollar advance of $20 billion in the nation during the first three months of the year.

Smaller Rise Seen

Officials look for a smaller but still hefty increase—perhaps $17 billion or $18 billion—during the current quarter.

The Commerce Department reported the record performance Monday in estimating the value of all goods and services produced in the economy—the Gross National Product —at an annual rate of $827.3 billion during the first quarter.

The GNP is the most comprehensive yardstick of economic activity and government economists consider the performance of the last nine months unsustainable over the long run. It rose by $16.1 billion in each of the previous two quarters.

They list an advance of about $12 billion to $14 billion as one which can be sustained with stable prices.

The Federal Reserve Board meanwhile reported industrial output during March at a record 162.1 per cent of the 1957-59 base period. It was the second straight monthly increase.

Tax In Works

One official said the boom can be expected to taper off during the third and fourth quarter to a more sustainable pace, provided taxes are raised.

Some officials say they are convinced the mood of Congress has changed and a tax increase is definitely in the works for this year. Prospects for an effective date prior to July 1 appear unrealistic, however. Congress has been considering since last summer President Johnson's proposal for a 10 per cent income tax surcharge.

Inflation ate up $8 billion of the $20 billion first-quarter economic advance. The other $12 billion was in actual economic growth.

The previous record quarterly advance was $18.4 billion during the height of the Vietnam war buildup in late 1965.

Memphis Happy At Strike End; Garbage Moves

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — The city's 1,300 garbage collectors began returning to their jobs early today, after settlement of a labor dispute which brought Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. to the city where he was killed.

The strikers began reporting to their stations in groups before dawn.

Ahead of the strikers, 98 per cent of them Negroes, was the mammoth job of clearing streets and vacant lots of refuse accumulated during the 65-day walkout.

All sides cheered Tuesday's agreement, described as a "memorandum of understanding" rather than a formal contract, although some Negro leaders suggested that it came far too late. Others pledged that a battle here for "equality and justice" had just begun.

Get Dues Checkoff

Under the pact, sanitation workers, now making from $1.65 to $2.10 an hour, will get a 10-cent hourly pay increase May 1 and another 5 cents an hour Sept. 1, along with union recognition and dues checkoffs.

Negro Councilman J. O. Patterson Jr. said this was substantially the same formula approved by the City Council only two weeks after the strike began, before some members reversed their positions.

"Seven weeks ago, we agreed to the main issues almost identical to those before us today," Patterson declared. "And then a majority of the council changed its mind. . .refused to take any action on this matter and a lot of hell broke out across the city and across the nation.

"We could have avoided all this, including the death of Dr. King," he said.

King Led March

The Nobel Peace Prize winner led garbage collectors on a march through downtown Memphis on March 28. He was planning another march when he was killed by a sniper April 4.

King's successor as head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, the Rev. Ralph Abernathy, termed the settlement "a significant victory, a major breakthrough."

The Rev. A. D. King, brother of the slain civil rights leader, joined Abernathy at a victory

U.S., Canada Reject Soviet Spying Charge

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government accused five U.S. military attaches and one from Canada today of overstepping the line between legal activity and "open espionage."

The U.S. Embassy responded with a charge that the Soviet Union on several occasions violated the diplomatic immunity of American military attaches in Moscow. It said the violations ranged "from minor, such as short detention, to various serious ones involving prolonged detention, forcible search and seizing of personal property."

Both the U.S. and Canadian embassies rejected the charges against the six attaches as unfounded.

The charges, as detailed in the government newspaper Izvestia, implied spying at a military base in Soviet White Russia and a shipyard in Leningrad.

Called Separately

Charges d'affaires of the two embassies were called separately to the Soviet Foreign Ministry and the charges presented to them.

There was no immediate indication that the Soviet government would declare the attaches persona non grata — unwanted persons — expelling them from the country.

"They crossed the border of curiosity and ended up on the path of vice," Izvestia said.

Williams Will Succeed Blair In Philippines

DETROIT (AP) — "I didn't know when it would break and we've been sort of hanging around waiting," said former Gov. G. Mennen Williams after President Johnson announced Williams' nomination as ambassador to the Philippines.

Williams, 59, served as assistant secretary of African affairs for 4½ years under Presidents Kennedy and Johnson untill resigning in March 1966. He said he had first been approached by the White House early last month about the Philippines appointment.

"If nominated by the Senate, I will glady serve," he said. "When the matter of a foreign assignment was first broached by the White House early in March, Nancy (his wife) and I were somewhat shocked by the thought of leaving our Michigan home and pursuits once more and taking up residence in a far-off country.

Glad To Serve

"But with so many other Americans serving their country in foreign lands, I felt proud and glad to accept this opportunity," said former six-term governor.

Williams would succeed William McCormick Blair Jr. who resigned.

When news of the nomination broke Tuesday night, the Williams' household in suburban Grosse Pointe Farms showed activity reminiscent of the old days when Williams was a Democratic power in Michigan.

"We haven't had a chance to get organized," said a secretary.

"It has been more than two years since Williams has been fully active in public life, not counting his unsuccessful campaign for the U. S. Senate.

Won '66 Primary

He defeated Detroit Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh in the August 1966 primary election by more than 145,000 votes but lost out in the fall to Sen. Robert P. Griffin in the general election.

Since then his public appearances have been relatively few. Williams called it "a happy period" and a chance to attend to some "odds and ends."

He said he attended "to some long overdue family matters. I also was able to look at the problem of our Negro revolution," said Williams.

He said he has been "working on my own with Negro businessmen," served with the Wayne County Office of Economic Opportunity and was on Bishop Emrich's Citizen's Committee for Equal Opportunity with emphasis on police-community relations.

Lost Young Voter

Ironically, Williams, who was known as the "boy wonder of Michigan politics" when he defeated incumbent Gov. Kim Sigler in 1948, was said to have left the younger generation behind during his Senate bid.

A Cavanagh aide remarked at the time, "We've got a lot of young voters in this state that don't remember Williams."

Williams was only 39 when he took office 20 years ago and along with the "boy wonder" tag, he picked up a pair of trademarks that remain with him today.

Popular At Fairs

One is the famous green-and-white polka dot bow tie. The other is his equally famous nickname "Soapy."

Williams says he got the nickname in 1925 because of his

Arizonan Buys London Bridge

LONDON (AP) — London Bridge is finally falling down—and the Americans are picking up the pieces.

The City of London Corporation announced the sale of the bridge to an American bidder Tuesday night and said the purchaser would be revealed later this week.

In Lake Havasu City, Ariz., a spokesman for the McCulloch Corp., a bidder for the bridge, said a news conference was called to announce that the firm won the bid.

But the spokesman, Frederick Schumacher, director of McCulloch's Lake Havasu City development, said, "If we don't win the bid, we'll just all have breakfast" at the news conference.

The price was estimated unofficially at $2.4 million. Schumacher said it would cost about $240,000 to ship the 10,000 tons of granite to Arizona.

McCulloch planned to rebuild the bridge at Lake Havasu City, a resort on the Colorado River.

The 136-year-old bridge joins the liners Queen Mary and Queen Elizabeth and sundry churches and castles on the transatlantic journey.

"How much for Buckingham Palace?" quipped one Briton of the monument drain.

A London Bridge has spanned the Thames in one form or another since Roman times 2,000 years ago. It has beeen falling down for centuries in the popular nursery rhyme.

The present bridge, built in 1831 and one of 12 across the Thames in London, is too narrow for today's heavy traffic. A wider bridge will replace it.

Newberry Hearing:

Varnum Says No Need For 'Full Blown' Inquiry

Complaints of workers at the Newberry State Hospital are primarily administrative in nature, Rep. Charles Varnum (R-Manistique) said today.

Rep. Varnum headed a legislative team which spent Monday and Tuesday at the State Hospital, investigating charges of irregularities made by several employes.

With Varnum were Rep. Peter Kok of Grand Rapids, chairman of the House Mental Health committee, and Charles H. Larson, executive assistant of the State Senate. Larson represented Sen. Thomas F. Schweigert of Petoskey, who was in New York, trying to get representatives of the Mackinac Bridge Authority to reduce fares on the bridge July 1 instead of next Jan. 1.

Complaints Minor

"We met for about 15 hours Monday with almost 50 state hospital employes and heard complaints of many kinds," said Rep. Varnum.

"But, generally speaking, I would say that most of them could be solved by administrative action and better understanding on the part of state hospital and mental health department officials.

"It appears that lack of effective communication between hospital officials and employes is the cause of most of the difficulties.

"Most of the complaints were of a minor nature, due to misunderstanding and breakdown of communication.

"There were some matters that appear to need further checking. Many of the employes agreed that they did not feel fire drills were sufficiently serious to permit any meaningful organization in case of fire.

Hear Complaints

"Part of the difficulty between employes and management resulted from reduction in civil service classifications, which officials said resulted from lack of money.

"But employes said that, while demotions were under way, other employes were being added to the staff and extensive remodeling and equipping of homes of top hospital officials was being carried out.

"Certainly, we did not find anything serious enough to warrant a full blown investigation."

Following the conferences with hospital employes, Rep. Varnum and the committee met with mental health officials from Lansing and hospital officials and sought to remove the causes of friction.

Social Security Benefits Told

Information regarding the extended benefits of Social Security and the effect of Social Security on the economy was presented by Arnold T. Williams, district manager, U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, to the Rotary Club Tuesday noon.

There are 23½ million people in the United State receiving some form of Social Security, Williams said.

In Escanaba there are 2,600 persons receiving some form of cash benefit, totaling $215,000 a month; there are 1,430 retired people in the city; and 330 wives receiving benefit payments; plus 109 receiving disability benefits.

There are 385 children receiving some form of Social Security benefit; and 291 widows are getting widow's benefit payments, Williams reported.

The Social Security laws have been liberalized and more benefits are being extended as the years go by, and the "general idea is to try to help retired persons receive what they need to meet the rising cost of living," he said.

"But I believe a person getting $92 a month is not at a high standard of living," Williams added.

For some, however, who retire at top earnings, it is possible for them to receive $165 a month.

Williams reported that changes in the regulations now permit widows who are disabled and can not be gainfully employed to receive widow's benefits at the age of 50.

Maximum for a family is now $350 a month, and it is proposed to increase this amount so that families may be held together as a family unit, rather than cause the family to be broken up.

Rising living costs and extended programs of benefits to the elderly, the orphaned and the disabled have resulted in increased participation in Social Security contributions by employers and employes.

When the program was established the contributions from each was 1 per cent. It is now 4.4 per cent for both employers and employes.

Williams was introduced by Don Yost, Rotary Club program chairman, and the meeting was conducted by Ralph Kaziateck, club president.

In his heyday in Michigan politics, Williams and the polka dot bok tie were at numerous county fairs where he delighted in calling square dances. He also was a frequent visitor to festivities for nationality groups around the state.

Williams invariably addressed them in a few words of their native tongue.

Now he'll have to brush up on the several languages spoken in the Philippines since he hasn't been to that country since the end of World War II.

"My wife, when she made a world health tour in 1959, spent some time in the Philippines," he noted.

When asked why he thought the President turned to him for the nomination, he said, "I don't know. I think he can say better than I can."

Asked if he would wear his green-and-white bow tie on the new job, Williams beamed: "Yeah, I guess so."

Negroes And US

A clergyman from Munising suggested an editorial on the subject of racism in the Upper Peninsula.

What is the message for us? he asked, in effect.

Meaning that, while the Upper Peninsula has very few Negro residents, except those at the Army Air Force Bases, it certainly has a concern in the great racial troubles of Detroit, Milwaukee, Chicago and other large cities which cannot be explained away nor dismissed because we seem to be distant from them.

He is so right.

The problems are with us as truly as though we had the proportions of Negroes which the big cities to the south have. This is because the problem is not only one of living next door to colored people. Essentially the problem is one of the mind.

* * *

As a man thinks, so is he, says the old saw. What do we far Northerners think of Negroes? Casual listening to comment indicates that we share the national prejudices. We over-react against Negroes when black militants riot and destroy the neighborhoods of their fellow Negroes, who are reported by surveys to be about 95 per cent against disorders and lawbreaking.

It is very difficult for whites to apply the Golden Rule and put themselves in the place of Negroes. The subjugation under which Negroes have lived in America always is beyond the comprehension of most whites. The resentment of Negroes at the treatment they receive is, therefore, not understood by whites.

* * *

To answer the clergymen and suggest a proper regard for the problems of racism in this Far Northern theater where we have so few Negroes and where there is no rioting nor looting, we suggest:

1. An effort to regard Negro criminals — the looters, arsonists, snipers, rioters, molesters — as underprivileged, as much as we can; not in terms of black or white. This isn't easy and may be impossible, but any fair judgment demands it because it's just plain hell to be Negro and be held responsible for all the criminal craziness of some Negroes when it is even more opposed by most Negroes than by whites. The punishment comes down upon all Negroes.

2. An effort to avoid the common attitude that: "When the Negroes earn our respect we'll give it to them." This is grossly unfair judgment of Negroes on white standards. Whites have been coddled by a fine system of education which has been largely denied to Negroes. They have been discriminated against in job opportunities and in many other ways. To ask Negroes to match whites in capabilities and possessions after generations of such discrimination is to continue the discrimination and invite a continuation of the evils it has brought down upon us all.

* * *

3. An acknowledgement that there are more than 20 million Negroes in America whom our national law says are entitled to full citizenship. Practically, a minority of such huge size cannot be wished away, and morally the treatment of it will determine the character of the rest of the nation

4. There will be no quick, complete solution of the race problem.

5. We should be as concerned with white racism — an anti-Negro element among whites, as with the anti-white hate of Black Power.

6. We should make a sincere beginning at giving Negroes the opportunities which are open to whites. Its most auspicious start would be in Negro educational opportunities.

7. We shouldn't indulge national emotional binges like the recent one over the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. They don't prove anything except that national insincerity tries to make up in show what it lacks in substance.

Continual team practice makes it possible to devise special bids for special situations. One problem is how to handle the bidding when your opponents crowd you.

Bobby Goldman and Billy Eisenberg have developed a bid which they call "Value Swiss." If it works as well on other hands as it did with this one, I guess 'Value Swiss" will be standard procedure with our team.

Bobby sitting North had very fine heart support. He wanted to invite a slam without getting past four hearts in case Billy had opened a minimum. He solved his problem by bidding four clubs. This bid was artificial and said "Partner, I have a very strong four heart bid."

Billy was interested in seven and worried about six at one and the same time. Blackwood would not solve his problem. His partner could have one ace and two little spades. Fortunately our team uses a bid that dad tells me was invented back in the early thirties. The bid of five of an agreed major suit asks partner to bid the slam if he can take care of the second lead of the danger suit.

Since West had bid spades, that had to be the danger suit. Therefore, Billy's five heart bid asked Bobby to bid six with second round spade control. Bobby obliged and the slam was of course a laydown.

Since you might wonder about the name "Value Swiss," I might explain that the name "Swiss" is given to certain jumps to four clubs and four diamonds when a three club or three diamond bid would be a force. These Swiss bids are all artificial and there seems to be almost as many of them as there are Alps.

Abortion Laws Are Target Of Reform

By HELEN HENNESSY

NEW YORK (NEA)—New York Protestant and Jewish clergymen formed a consultation service last year to offer help to women who faced problem pregnancies. In the first five months of its existence, it provided more than 800 women with the best medical advice with a minimum of risk to their lives and health.

The Rev. Howard R. Moody, pastor of Judson Memorial Church in Greenwich Village, one of the 31 trying to help, said: "About 90 per cent of these women chose to have an abortion."

This growing concern, indicative of the changing times, is reflected as well in both the proposed and already enacted reforms in abortion laws across the country.

It was as short a time ago as 1962 when Mrs. Robert Finkbine, a Phoenix mother of four, went to Sweden for a therapeutic abortion rather than give birth to a deformed child.

She had inadvertently taken the birth-deforming drug thalidomide. Yet the laws of the United States prohibited abortion by a licensed physician except to save the life of the mother, and she had to leave the country to have a legal operation.

* * *

The storm of publicity her story brought about forced the lawmakers and the public to peek under the edge of the political rug where the abortion problem had been swept for years.

Today the subject of abortion is openly reviewed in the newspapers and magazines and discussed and debated on television. And state legislatures are finally doing something about the archaic laws which make it a public crime for a doctor to terminate an unwanted pregnancy no matter how dire the need.

Now in seven states (Colorado, California, North Carolina, Alabama, Maryland, Oregon and New Mexico) and the District of Columbia, abortion is not a crime if pregnancy endangers the health as well as the life of the mother.

Colorado, a leader in the reform movement, passed its new law last April. That law permits abortion to preserve the mental as well as the physical health of the mother.

Opponents of reform predicted that Colorado would become an "abortion paradise." But this has not happened.

* * *

Dr. David Cowen, manager of health and hospitals for Denver, said in a recent interview, "In the first seven months under the new law, 115 abortions were performed in Colorado hospitals, 29 of them on women from other states. That's hardly what I'd call an abortion mecca."

Most of the abortions performed under the new Colorado law have been done to preserve the mental health of the mother. And critics of the new law fear that this may lead to "abortion on request."

The national toll of deaths from illegal abortions is 1,000 a year on a conservative estimate. Some experts claim 5,000 to be a more accurate figure. And contrary to the belief that most abortions are sought by unmarried women, Hartiet Pilpel, an attorney for the New York Civil Liberties Union, maintains that of the estimated one million surreptitious abortions performed each year in the United States 90 per cent involve married women who already several children.

* * *

Because so many women with families are involved, the problem affects at least five million people. It has become a public health menace. It is time, say critics of the law, that the rug be pulled up. A peek under the edges is no longer good enough. But it is a beginning.

Now Virginia is off and running, hoping to join the enlightened crowd. And many experts on law believe that the present New York law needs a lot of clarifying. It states that abortion is prohibited except when necessary to save the life of the mother or the child. "How can an abortion possibly save the life of the child?" they ask.

Women who live outside the major cities may not be aware that this once-whispered word has now become an outspoken cause among doctors, clergymen and politicians no matter which side of the fence they are on.

In New York, Assemblyman Albert H. Blumenthal, a Manhattan Democrat, tried unsuccessfully to get his reform bill through. It was killed last year after bitter controversy. Governor Rockefeller's special committee on abortion reform recommended an even broader liberalization than the Blumenthal bill but the Legislature voted against any reform.

* * *

In Virginia, Wallace G. Dickson, Democrat from Arlington, expects to be the chief patron of reform in his state.

"I believe the question is a medical one," he said, "and I am proposing that we repeal the present law and leave the matter on a case-by-case basis to our licensed physicians who, I am confident, can and will make intelligent and competent decisions based upon the medical and psychic needs of the individual patient."

Even the American Medical Association, after 94 years of standing firmly as "anti-abortion," has agreed to favor some reforms.

Since religious pressure has played an important role in this issue, we'll view the clergy's attitude.

* * *

A few years ago, Jeanne L., a young mother of four and wife of a daily drinker and sometime worker, died by her own hand. It wasn't suicide. She didn't plan to kill herself. She was pregnant again. The expense and care of another baby was more than she could face. Drugs and home potions didn't help. She couldn't afford an abortion and didn't know where to go for one even if she could pay.

A friend told her how she could handle the matter at home herself. She tried. She arrived DOA at Lincoln Hospital in New York.

Today she could have dialed a local telephone number — (212-477-0034) — and received a recorded message giving her the names and phone numbers of the participating clergymen who form a consultation service to help women who are being driven into the world of criminality or the dangerous practice of self-induced abortion by the present laws.

The Roman Catholic Church takes the position that human life and the human soul take form from the moment of conception. According to spokesmen, it considers abortion under any circumstances infanticide.

Liberalized abortion laws permit termination of pregnancy on the premise that the fetal life can be destroyed without taking a human life.

"The Tablet," a conservative Catholic newspaper recently published a picture story of fetal development in which photographs of even a 14-week-old fetus looked like a baby. The photos would give anyone, however liberal, a hard time deciding that what was being destroyed was a "nothing."

However, many priests feel that there should be a repeal of all abortion laws—that the practice of abortion should perhaps be considered a private sin but not a public crime.

* * *

At an international abortion conference sponsored by the Kennedy Foundation and the Harvard Divinity School, Father Robert F. Drinan, a Roman Catholic priest and dean of the Boston College Law School, said that he believes nonlaw has greater potential for solving the abortion problem than a reform in the law. He put it this way:

"Don't get me wrong. I'm not gung ho for any abortion reform until we get more information. But not everything that is immoral should be made a crime."

Abortions, according to the lawyer-priest, are a moral and medical issue, not a legal one. "Let's make the doctors the ones to decide who gets abortions," he said.

JOB TRAINING

While this Nation undergoes a technological revolution, and the pressure for formal higher education increases, the fact remains that over 70 per cent of our nation's high school graduates wil lnever receive a college degree and hundreds of thousands of young men will drop out of high school this year.

Certainly our nation is big enough and our economy fluid enough that there should be a productive place in society for every person, whether or not they have a college degree. However, we cannot just expect this to happen. We are going to have to utilize energy, imagination, and skill. If we fail, millions of young men and women are going to take a dead-end road that leads to additional trouble for a nation already deeply in trouble.

The answer is too big for government alone. There must be co-operation of givernment, education and private industry.

This winter and spring, I participated in the development of new manpower training legislation, which I feel is a first major step in creating opportunity for every American. This bill tackles the immediate problem of hard core unemployment and underemployment, but could be the foundation of a comprehensive new program opening the doors of opportunity to all interested citizens. It rejects the traditional welfare theory and is based on the belief that the real answer to poverty is jobs within the free enterprise framework.

Our bill creates a system of tax credits for industries willing to establish training programs and hire the disadvantaged and upgrade the underemployed. Employers may also chose a direct reimbursement for on-the-job training of each "hard core" employee. Our research indicates that 220,000 new private sector jobs could be created in the near future.

While we develop new approaches, our system of vocational education must also be greatly upgraded. Our goal must be that every person who choses not to go to college will be able to undertake meaningful vocational education. Legislation is now being developed to encourage regional programs that will be particularly effective in areas like Northern Michigan. Also, part-time vocational education programs will be emphasized for those students who must work to support themselves and their families, and there will be new emphasis on practical vocational training related to jobs available. I am giving my full support to this legislation.

Michigan Mother Of Year, Woman From Interlochen

DETROIT (AP)—Mrs. Ernest Schroeder, 67, of Interlochen was named Michigan Mother of the Year here by the Michigan Mothers Committee. She received the award from Mrs. George Romney, wife of the governor, at a luncheon in Detroit.

Mrs. Schroeder, wife of a retired Presbyterian minister, will compete for the title of the American Mother of the Year. That competition will be held May 5-9 in New York.

She won the state title over 18 competitors.

A graduate of Hanover College in Indiana and a former school teacher, Mrs. Schroeder has three sons and is still active in church affairs.

A great-uncle, Francis Bellamy, wrote the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Ann Landers

Someone Bound To Be Mad; Let Them

Dear Ann Landers: That letter from Mervyn, the big sport who won a trip to London as first prize in a sales contest made me laugh. It seems his girl was disappointed when he brought her a clump of dirt from the British Airport and called it a "gift."

I laughed, Ann, because it reminded me of a little game we used to play when we were kids. It's too bad the girl didn't know about the game because it would have been an appropriate way to thank Mervyn for his "generosity."

When a new kid moved into our neighborhood we would welcome him warmly and offer to tell his fortune. The fortune teller would wrap a dish towel around his head and use an old bowl as the crystal ball. The newcomer would extend his hand and the fortune teller would put a clump of dirt in his palm and say, "You are going to inherit a valuable piece of real estate. It is a beautiful lot in the best part of town. You will build a 15-room house on the lot. It will be the prettiest home in the city." Then the fortune teller would reach under his chair where he had a small glass of water handy and pour a little water into the newcomer's hand — enough to make a nice muddy mess and say, "I see you are also going to have a swimming pool. Aren't you the lucky one!"

This was considered the best way to test a newcomer. If he laughed and took it well he was accepted as O.K. Thanks for bringing back a childhood memory. — EX FORTUNE TELLER

Dear Ex: Funny you should have brought up that little game. Someone tried it on me when I was eight. I remember clearly that I thanked the fortune teller profusely and paid him for his reading by insisting that he share my real estate and swimming pool. He got half of it back — right in the kisser.

* * *

Dear Ann Landers: My husband's brother and his wife are creating a serious problem in our family and I need your help. They drive a very old car and it always has something wrong with it. Our car is not new but it is in excellent condition because we keep it that way.

At least twice a week they ask if they can borrow our car. My brother-in-law is a poor driver and has been in several minor accidents. Yesterday he returned our car with a broken tail light, an empty gas tank and a mysterious dent in the fender. Yet my husband insists we must let them take our car whenever they ask. He says he would never forgive himself if they were killed because the brakes konked out on their car or a tire blew. He claims we would be directly responsible. Also, he says he does not want them to be mad at us.

I would like to hear your views. — MARRIED TO A CHUMP

Dear Married: In a situation like this, somebody is bound to be mad. Let it be them.

If your brother-in-law is such a ding-a-ling that he would drive a beat up pile of junk with faulty brakes, whatever happens is HIS responsibility.

When you lend your car to a friend in an emergency you are a "nice guy," but when you lend it to a relative who doesn't have the decency to return it with some gas in the tank, you are a chump.

* * *

Confidential to Disappointed In You: Sorry, you said you wanted my opinion and I gave it. What you really wanted was someone to back you up. I couldn't do it because I don't believe in emotional blackmail.

* * *

Give in or lose him . . . when a guy gives you this line, look out! For tips on how to handle the super sex salesman, check Ann Landers. Read her booklet, "Necking And Petting — What Are The Limits?" Send your request to Ann Landers in care of your newspaper, enclosing 50 cents in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

No matter how great be the resources we commit to the struggle, we cannot provide the South Vietnamese with the will to survive as an independent nation or with the ability and self-discipline a people must have to govern themselves.

Losse Ill But Talks Continue

Robert O. Losse, vice president-personnel and industrial relations of Harnischfeger Corporation, is in St. Luke's Hospital, Milwaukee with a no visitor sign on his door.

He became ill in the weekend after some indisposition here last week during negotiations for a new contract between Harnischfeger and the United Auto Workers, whose contract expired on April 15. Negotiations had been underway for weeks and work is continuing at the Escanaba plants of Harnischfeger while negotiations for a new three-year contract continue.

The Milwaukee office of Harnischfeger Corp. said that Losse's illness had not been diagnosed in report, but that a cardiac involvement was suspected.

Lensman Dies In German Riot

BONN, Germany (AP) — An Associated Press photographer today became the first fatality from the wave of student riots in West Berlin and West Germany as the government debated how to calm the militant leftist students.

Cranial surgery failed to save the life of 32-year-old Klaus Frings, a German, who was hit in the head by a stone Monday night while covering a battle between police and student demonstrators in Munich. His condition worsened after the operation, and he died early today.

Wes Gallagher, general manager of The Associated Press, cabled Frings' widow that her husband "joins many others of the profession of journalism who have given their lives in peace and war so that the public could be kept informed."

Police said earlier they had arrested 24-year-old Rainer Gohr, who was suspected of throwing the stone from behind a bush in a dark park.

Memory Lane:

Can Road Be Made Safer?

Can Memory Lane be made a safer road for traffic?

The Transportation Committee of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce and the Safety Advisory Committee of the City of Escanaba, in this final article on the subject, concludes:

"Our committees recognize that Memory Lane is a controversial subject.

"We have attempted to give you statistics to support the fact that this is a hazardous stretch of highway and to to make you aware of what can and cannot be done to improve this road.

"If just making these facts public will have the effect of reducing accidents through a public awareness of the hazards, we will consider that our time was well spent."

To properly repair this stretch of U. S. 2-41 it will be required that the muck must be dug from beneath the road base, according to State Highway engineers.

- "No new construction will be undertaken until all trees within 30 feet of the road are removed."
- There are no funds appropriated to improve this section of highway before 1972.
- "The Department of State Highways has conclusively proved that better than 90 per cent of the cars that go out of control can be brought back under control within 30 feet of the time they leave the road. The trees along Memory Lane are 18 feet from the edge of the road."

The continued use of Memory Lane by a growing volume of traffic is indicated to past 1990, for Congressman Phil Ruppe the interstate east-west highway system in the U.P. can not become a reality before that date.

Neither the volume of traffic nor present day high speeds were taken into consideration at the time the Memory Lane plantings were made.

How can the Memory Lane accident rate be reduced?

1. — Remove the trees. This would be done by the State Highway Department without cost to the city or county.

2. — Warning signs of dangerous road ahead, caution lights, reduced speed limits, more traffic police patrols.

The committees also suggest that a civic group or groups may be interested in sponsoring a beautification project in the Memory Lane area, anticipating the time when the trees will be removed, thus creating a memorial setting which would not be hazardous.

And the removal or the limiting of "the number of billboard type signs lining each side of the road," is also suggested. These might be replaced by "more imaginative and attractive signs in keeping with our Northwoods atmosphere."

Memphis Happy At Strike End; Garbage Moves

rally for the strikers and proclaimed that "this is just the beginning.

Step Forward

"We live in a sick nation," he said. "A few days ago, I thought Memphis was on the death list. Today it appears it may live again."

Abernathy said the settlement marked a step forward, but did not compensate the poor for their financial losses, "nor is it compensation for the loss of our brother and leader, Martin Luther King Jr.

"The city of Memphis has made one step down the long road of economic and racial justice," he said. "This step is not much more than one tiny step because there are still hundreds of poor people here."

Plan New Drive

Undersecretary of Labor James Reynolds, who joined the negotiations two days after King's death, said the solution was "honorable and proper under the circumstances."

The Rev. James Lawson, who was the chief strategist for the strikers and their sympathizers, declared after the agreement that a new campaign would be directed toward better housing, more jobs and an end to what he said was police brutality.

Also on strike are the Typographers, the Plate and Paper Handlers, and the Stereotypers.

The strike began last Nov. 16 with a walkout by members of Teamsters Union Local 372, which since has reached contracts with both newspapers.

'Shoot To Kill' Order Has Lindsay Dissent

CHICAGO (AP)—Mayor Richard J. Daley's order to shoot arsonists and looters came in for rapping and clapping Tuesday, and drew disagreement from Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York.

Daley's order, sent out to the police department Monday night by Superintendent John B. Conlisk Jr., said "such force as is necessary, including deadly force," shall be used to prevent arson and looting and to prevent the escape of those who commit such crimes.

The instructions went out after Daley had expressed disappointment that no such order had been issued during the racial rioting on the weekend of April 5. The disorders resulted in 11 deaths and property losses of $9 million.

Probe Conspiracy

A committee of nine men, appointed by the mayor, met Tuesday to begin an investigation of the rioting and the possibility of a conspiracy to set fires, jam telephone lines, slow expressway traffic and circulate false rumors.

The committee is headed by Judge Richard Austin of the U.S. District Court.

Mayor Lindsay, urging minimum force wherever possible, said he couldn't agree with Mayor Daley's assertion that police should shoot to kill arsonists and shoot to maim adult looters in any future rioting.

"We're not going to turn disorder into chaos," Lindsay told a news conference in New York's City Hall.

A Chicago alderman, Leon M. Despres, a frequent critic of Daley's policies, contended the mayor's order is illegal.

"American and Illinois law," he said, "do not permit the penalty of execution for suspected arson."

Chicagoans Divided

Jack Reilly, an aide of the Chicago mayor, said Daley has received considerable backing from citizens.

"The mayor's office has received many, many telegrams supporting the order," he said.

The Rev. Sammy Lewis, a Negro who is pastor of the New Hope Missionary Baptist Church on the Near North Side, said he had sent a telegram saying the mayor has "fanned the flames of future violence."

The Fraternal Order of Police, sent Daley a telegram saying Daley will have the cooperation of policemen.

"You have our deepest respect and admiration for the unequivocal stand you have taken with respect to the anarchy that is threatening to destroy our nation," said the message.

Kidnaped Cops Were Drugged

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Two rookie Ann Arbor police officers, working undercover on a narcotics investigation which eventually led to 15 arrests, were forced at gunpoint to smoke marijuana, the Ann Arbor News reported Tuesday.

The two new men had been assigned to check out reported sales of marijuana and heroin in campus areas at the University of Michigan and at Eastern Michigan University in the adjoining community of Ypsilanti to the east, said the newspaper.

Their undercover assignment ended abruptly last week, said The News, when four men, later arrested for kidnaping and robbery, accused the police officers of being police informers.

The News said the four men forced the two police officers at gunpoint to accompany them to a downtown Ann Arbor apartment where they attempted to obtain quantities of LSD which they intended to administer to the officers.

However, said the newspaper, the four were unable to obtain enough of the mind-expanding drug so the two rookies were forced to smoke marijuana at gunpoint.

The two officers were held in the apartment for about four hours before they were released, reported The News. One of the officers was said to have been deeply under the influence of marijuana when released early Wednesday morning.

Neither officer carried police identification. But one of their captors reportedly found a city pay stub in the pocket of one of the policemen.

The Ann Arbor Police Department has refused to identify the two officers and Washtenaw County Prosecutor William F. Delhey also has declined comment on the case.

The newspaper said it received its information from a knowledgable source.

The four men are being held in the Washtenaw County Jail on $40,000 bond each as they await examination expected next week in Ann Arbor Municipal Court.

U.S., Canada Reject Soviet Spying Charge

The charges against the attaches were made public after another official Soviet newspaper accused the leader of a U.S. student exchange group of espionage last summer.

The paper Komsomolskaya Pravda said Stephan P. Sudakov of Indiana University had confessed that he was a trained U.S. agent and had been expelled from the Soviet Union.

U.S. Assistant Army Attaches Lt. Col. Hugo W. Matson and Lt Col. Gerhard L. Jacobson were accused of slipping into a closed area near Borisov, in Soviet White Russia, and taking notes "of an intelligence character."

Claim Photos Taken

Assistant Naval Attaches Cmdr. Robert Hamer, Lt. Cmdr. Ralph N. Channell and Marine Lt. Col. Wayne E. Richards were accused of photographing a Leningrad shipyard.

Izvestia said the Leningrad incident occurred April 8 and the Borisov case was a day later.

An assistant Canadian military attache, Lt. Col. J. V. Watsonn was accused of acting as a lookout man for Hamer, Channell and Richards.

Watson told a reporter the group was walking down a street when a Soviet policeman stopped them, asked for identification and detained them in conversation for about an hour.

They were not taking photos at the time, Watson said, and were not considering it. He said they were unaware they were in a sensitive area.

GLADSTONE

Rainbows And Cohos Are Early Fishing Attractions

In the Escanaba - Gladstone area some rainbows are being taken in the Bark River, best luck being reported with spawn bags for bait. Perch fishing has been good on Little Bay de Noc off of Masonville using minnows and wigglers for bait. A few rainbows are being caught on the Days River using spawn bags for bait. Boats can be rented at Nelson's landing at Masonville.

Smelt started showing up on the Escanaba, Ford, Bark, and the Tacoosh rivers this past Friday but with the colder weather over the weekend the runs slowed up to nothing. If the weather warms up, the smelt runs should peak by this coming weekend.

A 4½ pound rainbow trout was reported taken in the Day's River last week.

In the Marquette area rainbow fishing has been good trolling on Lake Superior at the mouth of the Little Garlic, Dead, Carp, and Chocolay rivers using spawn bags and salmon eggs and using various spoons for trolling. The Carp River has also produced some nice catches of rainbow using the same bait. Coho fishing has been slow in this area, but, an occasional one is being picked up.

A smelt run is expected in this area very shortly with the early spring and warm weather.

No rainbow fishing success has been reoprted in the Munising area as yet, but success has been good on cohos in Lake Superior off the mouth of the Anna River. Most of them caught have been in the 15-18 inch class, taken by trolling in shallow water using spawn bags and silvery spoons for bait. Some rainbow fishing off of the mouth of Laughing Whitefish, trolling using spawn sacks for bait. Some light catches of coho being taken at mouth of the Au Train River trolling and using the cleo artificial lure as bait. No smelt have appeared in this area yet, however, with smelt beginning to move in the rainbow and coho fishing should improve.

The water throughout the Escanaba District is high after heavy rains in the weekend. Roads are in fair condition but some of the back woods roads are in bad condition.

Persons interested in taking suckers for their own use can spear them only in May in designated waters. Certain designated streams are also open in May for the taking of suckers with dip nets. A new regulation in effect this year allows the taking of suckers from March 1 with hand nets in the same waters and in the same manner as smelt. This is confined to the same waters that are designated for the taking of smelt and with the same hand net.

Any person wanting to spear suckers or use a dip net in May can get a list of these waters from any conservation officer or Conservation Dept. station.

The money-winning method of Golfdom's Champion of Champions, Frank Beard, will be appearing regularly in the Escanaba Daily Press beginning Monday, April 22.

* * *

Beard's three a week columns will give valuable tips on how to improve your golf game through the summer. In his "Shaving Strokes" column, he takes you from tee to green with each club and explains how to cut your score with valuable expert advice.

* * *

Frank Beard was one of the top five money winners on the pro circuit last year. He took the "Champion of Champions" title from Arnold Palmer in the Tournament of Champions of Las Vegas.

* * *

Beard explains that his success is primarily a result of following advice contained in his column. "I can name 25-30 players better than I am, but still I beat them."

* * *

Beard's ability to pass his winning techniques to readers of the Daily Press comes naturally. He was reared in the home of a pro golf instructor, his father.

* * *

Watch for Frank Beard's new 96-page golf instruction book "Shaving Strokes" which will soon be available through the Escanaba Daily Press for just $1. You'll want to carry his advice onto the links.

Robinson Hits Homer In Ninth For Victory

By The Associated Press

Last November, former All-Star Floyd Robinson found himself on a minor league roster at Vancouver after he was sold by Cincinnati to the Oakland A's.

After somehow slipping through the player draft, Robinson, 31, rejoined the American League team.

He slugged a pinch homer in the ninth inning Tuesday, getting the two runs that helped Oakland beat the New York Yankees 4-3.

In the only other AL action, Detroit wrecked Boston's home opener by defeating the defending AL champion Red Sox 9-2 and Cleveland topped the Chicago White Sox 3-1 on Tony Horton's two-run shot in the seventh inning.

Robinson had undergone surgery on his right knee last October before Cincinnati sold him.

Charles Finley, trying to protect his young players on the parent Oakland roster, took a chance on the 31-year-old and risked him in the draft. Nineteen clubs were looking the other way while Robinson slipped through safely.

"It was puzzling," said Robinson Tuesday afternoon. "I didn't think it could happen so soon. Big leagues from 1960 to '67 and then the minors."

In a way it was incredible that, in this day of sagging averages, a man with a lifetime mark of .283 wasn't worth a big league draft.

"I was quite worried when I went to spring training with the A's at Bradenton," said Robinson, who spent seven years with the Chicago White Sox and one with Cincinnati.

"I didn't know what to expect from my knee. It's still not as strong as I'd like it to be, but I think I can play when the weather gets warm. I was in only about 18 innings all spring."

Robinson's homer that wrecked the Yankees came on the first pitch from Dooley Womack, who had put down an Oakland rally in the eighth inning in which the Athletics scored a run. John Donaldson was on through a single when Robinson unloaded.

New York scored all of its runs in the first. Reggie Jackson got the A's first run with a third-inning homer.

Chicago's Joe Horlen was working on a two-hitter until Duke Sims beat out a grounder opening the seventh, and Horton followed with his homer. The Indians' added another run in the inning. Pete Ward homered for the Chicago run in the top of the seventh.

Spartan Backfield Set; Rebuilding Year Begins

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan State's football squad has a pretty good start on a first string offensive backfield, admits Coach Duffy Daugherty.

"Otherwise," Daugherty said at the start of spring drills Tuesday, "This will be a complete rebuilding year."

Last fall's 3-7 won and lost record was the worst ever for Daugherty as a headache.

A brisk scrimmage was ordered for the first day of spring workouts, emphasizing the determination of Daugherty and his aides to stage a comeback this fall.

Daugherty was asked to rate the probable strength of the Big Ten this season. He picked Ohio State and Purdue to fight it out as leaders and Michigan, Indiana and Minnesota as the teams that will be chasing them.

"How would you rank Michigan State?" he was asked.

"We could be a better team than last year and still not be good team," replied Daugherty.

Actually, Daugherty added, "No one blew us off the field last year. And we lost some close ones."

A lot will depend, the coach said, on the recovery rate among the many players injured last year. These included 14 surgical cases, Daugherty noted.

A preliminary head count showed 20 lettermen lost and 29 returning. The exact number of lettermen back will depend on how fast some recover from surgery. More than 90 players turned out for the first workout, some student volunteers, but the number always dwindles as drills continue.

Bill Feraco, a senior this fall, will have first crack at quarterback. Feraco hit 32 passes in 72 tries for 375 yards last fall as an understudy to Jimmy Raye, now gone with graduation.

Raye was more of a running quarterback while Feraco had the better passing average. So MSU will have to tailor its offense more to the passing threat, Daugherty said.

Daugherty said his first picks for the remainder of the backfield would be Lamarr Thomas and Frank Waters at the halfs and Regis Cavenger at fullback.

Waters, son of the Hillsdale College Football coach and athletic director, also will be used as a flanker back and defensive halfback.

"All our split ends and flanker backs will work on both offense and defense," Daugherty added. "That will give some of them two chances to be a first stringer."

Thomas was second leading ground-gainer last season with 311 yards. Al Brenner, the top pass receiver with 26 catches and 462 yards, is one of those who also will be drilled on defense.

Brenner, Daugherty noted, is the only regular offensive lineman returning from last year. The defensive line is expected to be in better shape because not many of those returning from the injured list were with this unit.

"But we also need a lot of help from the former freshman to become sophomores this fall," said Daugherty.

Workouts will be held four days a week. Practices will be closed except to newsmen and those with passes from the coaches.

One way to get such a pass, Daugherty suggested, is to donate $100 to the Ralph Young Memorial Fund, set up in honor of the late athletic director.

"Football doesn't get any of that money," Daugherty said, "but it goes to help support all the other sports at the university."

Michigan State will not stage an inter-squad game open to the public to wind up spring drills this year.

One reason given was that it interferes with the concentration on building for the ball.

Cardinals Fast Start Continues With Briles

By The Associated Press

Two plus 10 equals 12 to mathematicians and baseball statisticians, but not to Nelson Briles. Not when money is involved, he says.

"I haven't won 12 straight games," insisted the St. Louis hurler, who captured his last 10 decisions in 1967 and ran his record to 2-0 this year by pitching the Cardinals past Atlanta 6-2 Tuesday night.

"It's just two in a row. I already got paid for last season."

Two or 12, Briles' logic failed to impress the Braves as much as his fast ball that stopped the home club with only two unearned runs for eight innings before Joe Hoerner pitched the ninth.

His victory continued the fast getaway of the world champion Cardinals, who moved back into a tie for first place with idle Houston at 5-1.

Lower in the standings, Los Angeles did some hitting for a change and powered past Philadelphia 5-3 in a night game after Cincinnati outlasted the Chicago Cubs 9-8 in the afternoon in the only National League games scheduled.

Briles, who received a big pay raise after recording a 14-5 record and one World Series victory last season, appears to have his mind and arm attuned to more victories that add up to more money this year.

The right-hander, who came out of the bullpen and performed sensationally as a starting replacement for injured Bob Gibson in 1967, scattered nine hits against the Braves, who broke through only with the aid of an error.

Briles held a 6-0 lead for 6 2-3 innings before catcher Tim McCarver dropped a foul pop and Hank Aaron and Felipe Alou followed with run-scoring singles. It was not enough to overcome Orlando Cepeda's four hits and three runs batted in and a homer by Mike Shannon off loser Tony Cloninger.

Only a blister on his index finger, the result of throwing his fast ball, kept Briles from finishing.

Mike Kekich, who just turned 23, might also be dreaming of 20 some day, but right now his mind is one No. 1, his first major league victory.

The left-handed rookie pitcher, who lost to Philadelphia in his only other big league start in June, 1965, had the Phillies blanked for seven innings before two singles knocked him out at the start of the eighth. Richie Allen singled in two runs off Phil Regan before Hank Aquirre put out the fire after a sacrifice fly by Tony Gonzales.

However, the Dodgers, who have been shut out three times this season and scored only four runs in five games, had broken loose earlier for a 5-0 lead as Wes Parker, Zoilo Versalles and Willie Davis doubled in runs.

Cincinnati had to come from behind after the Cubs scored seven times in the third inning for a 7-5 lead. Lee May climaxed the comeback with his fourth hit, a single that drove in the winning run in the ninth inning. He knocked in two other runs earlier with a homer and a single, offsetting three RBI by the Cubs' Ernie Banks, who double and homered.

Packers Receive Peay From Giants

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Coach Phil Bengtson of the Green Bay Packers says he's sorry to see linebacker Tommy Crutcher leave the world champions.

But Bengtson said, Francis Peay of the New York Giants, the tackle the Packers sacrificed Crutcher and tackle Steve Wright to get, has the potential to be outstanding.

"We think it was a real equitable trade," said Bengtson of the National Football League transaction Monday with the New York Giants.

Peay, 6-foot-5, 250 pounds, started for the Giants for the past two seasons.

Wright had a starting shot with the Packers early in the 1965 season. He replaced Forrest Gregg at offensive tackle when Gregg was shifted to guard to replace the ailing Jerry Kramer.

A high Packer draft choice in 1964, the 6-foot-6, 250-pound Wright returned to the bench when Kramer regained his strength. Wright, 25, a former Alabama player, saw only limited action in the past two seasons.

Crutcher, 6-foot-3, 225 pounds, played extensively last season as a backup man for outside linebackers Lee Roy Caffey and Dave Robinson. The former TCU athlete, 26, was a jarring tackler with good speed.

Tigers' Big Inning Dumps Red Sox 9-2

BOSTON (AP)—Earl Wilson regained his pitching mastery over his old Boston teammates in quick order, but like most hurlers he wanted to talk about his hitting after spoiling the Red Sox home opener with a 9-2 victory Tuesday.

"That one inning," said Wilson. "If I don't get a hit it's a different ball game."

He was describing his line single to center which kept alive an eight-run fourth inning to wrap up the game early.

Wilson also was sharp on the mound, allowing the Red Sox only four hits in gaining revenge for an opening day loss at Detroit when his old mates beat him for the first time since he was traded to the Tigers in 1966. Meanwhile, the Tigers gave him all the support he needed offensively, and the Red Sox tossed in plenty of defensive miscues to make it easier.

Bill Freehan started off the big uprising in the fourth by beating out a hit off the third base bag, and the Tigers proceeded to send 13 batters to the plate before reliever Lee Stange got out of the inning.

Culp Gets Rough Welcome

Boston right-hander Ray Culp, a veteran of five years in the National League, was given a rough reception in his American League debut. He escaped trouble in the first three innings before being routed in the fourth.

After Freehan's hit, Culp walked four batters and gave up four hits before Stange took over. Ray Oyler capped the rally with a two-run single.

"It was just one of those days," said Boston Manager Dick Williams. "We just played a bad ball game. It was a poorly pitched game—a poor game over-all. One causes the other."

Williams cited an error by third baseman Dalton Jones as one of the key factors in the big inning. Al Kaline had flied to Carl Yastrzemski for the second out, and the throw from left field appeared to have Dick McAuliffe trapped between third and home, but Jones dropped the ball.

"We're out of the inning with just three runs if Jones catches the throw," Williams said.

Only McAuliffe, who walked four times, failed to collect a hit as Detroit pounded out 15 safeties. Willie Horton led the attack with a pair of doubles and a single. Freehan also had three hits.

Wilson Evens Record

The Red Sox touched Wilson, who evened his record at 1-1, for a run in the second on Joe Lahoud's double and a pop single by Elston Howard. They added a run in the seventh on Mike Andrews' first homer of the year.

Wilson, a 22-game winner last year, said he was bothered by his control for the second straight game and had "just average stuff."

But he was still a puzzle to the Red Sox in raising his lifetime record against them to 6-1. He was touched for three hits and one run in the first two innings and didn't allow another hit until Andrews' bases empty homer in the seventh.

"I thought they were taking the first pitch then, but with a lead like that I'm trying to get the ball in there anyway," said Wilson. "That type of homer won't hurt me—I don't care if I give up 20 like that."

The victory was Detroit's fourth straight following the opening game loss. They remain in second place behind Minnesota.

Asked about his team's quick getaway, the good hitting and now Tuesday's sharp performance by his ace pitcher, Manager Mayo Smith refused to get overly excited.

"It's a long season," he said. "This is just the beginning."

The Tigers were to meet the Cleveland Indians today in Detroit with Denny McLain opposing the Indians' Sam McDowell.

Hawks End Four Game Comeback; Tip Rangers 4-1

By The Associated Press

Chicago Black Hawk Coach Billy Reay, who finished a winner, spoke about his penalty killers and defenseman Doug Jarrett's good game. New York Ranger Coach Emile Francis, a loser, was left with only philosophy.

The Hawks' 4-1 victory over the Rangers Tuesday night completed a remarkable four-game comeback. New York had taken a two-game lead in their National Hockey League Stanley Cup semifinal series and seemed all but certain to make it past the first playoff round for the first time since 1950.

Reay gave full credit to his team of penalty killers — Eric Nesterenko, Chico Maki, Bobby Hull and Stan Mikita — who successfully kept the Rangers away from the net three times in the second period with the score tied 1-1.

"Give those penalty killers credit for keeping us in the game in that second period," said Reay, "and add it to that Doug Jarrett played his best game of the year for us."

Francis also gave credit to Hull and to Chicago's De Jordy but kept ranging back to Bob Schmautz' goal in the fifth game of the series Sunday that beat the Rangers 2-1.

"That goal really killed us," said Francis. "We outplayed them in that game and I thought we should have won it. It's funny — sometimes it's better to be lucky than good."

In the other NHL Stanley Cup playoffs, Minnesota beat Los Angeles 4-3 in an overtime period to tie their best-of-7 series at three games apiece and Philadelphia edged St. Louis 2-1 in two overtimes, knotting that West Division semifinals at three games each.

The Black Hawks meet Montreal in the first game of the East Division finals at Montreal Thursday night. The Canadiens won their series four straight from Boston.

Jarrett scored first against the Rangers, who hadn't lost four games in a row all season, but Rod Gilbert tied it up with a goal early in the second period.

With 35 seconds left in the period, Maki took a sharp pass from Hull and put the Hawks ahead for good. Pit Martin and Mikita scored in the final period to ice the game.

Milan Marcetta knocked in a shot at 9:11 of the overtime to give Los Angeles its series-tying victory over Los Angeles. The final game will be played Thursday night at Los Angeles.

The North Stars came back from a 3-1 deficit in the final period, tying the score on goals by Bill Goldsworthy and Bob McCord. Scores in quick successsion by Real Lemieux and Brent Hughes early in the second period had given the Kings their 3-1 lead.

Glenn Hall slipped making a save on a easy shot by Don Blackburn and Philadelphia beat St. Louis 1-1 at 18 of the second overtime period to deadlock that series. The final game will be played in Philadelphia Thursday.

Blackburn's shot was a weak one, but Hall, who seemed to have an easy save, fell and the puck went between his legs. Andre Lacroix tied the score for Philadelphia with just 15 seconds left in regulation play with a desperation shot.

Judges Consider Hoffa Motion For New Trial

CINCINNATI (AP)—A three-judge panel of the U. S. 6th Circuit Court of Appeals took under advisement Tuesday a motion by attorneys for James R. Hoffa to reopen a plea for a new trial on his conviction for jury tampering. The request for the new trial, the fourth of its kind, previously was denied.

Hoffa, head of the Teamsters' union, is serving an eight-year sentence on the charge.

As in previous motions, the current request contends that new evidence has been discovered.

The 6th Circuit last Sept. 14 affirmed a decision by U.S. District Judge Frank Wilson of Chattanooga, Tenn., which denied a third motion. That motion alleged misconduct on the part of jurors—similar to the first motion filed.

The court did not indicate just when a ruling would be given.

17-Year-Old Given Jail Sentence For Striking Teacher

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Leslie Littles, 17, expelled from one Grand Rapids high school, has been sentenced to 90 days in jail for striking a teacher at another high school where he also was not a student.

Police Court Judge Robert Verdier, in imposing the maximum sentence on Littles' guilty plea, said "this sort of thing has to stop."

Verdier said the incident occurred the day following the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. When the teacher stepped from his room into a hall where a number of youths were running.

MANISTIQUE

Alcohol Dangers Cited To Teens

Addressing a high school assembly Tuesday morning at Manistique High School, Maurice Kelly, director of the alcoholism unit at War Memorial Hospital, Sault Ste. Marie, gave a "chalk talk" geared to his teenage audience.

Qualifying his remarks on the dangers of excessive drinking, Kelly said that he was an alcoholic — "a reformed alcoholic and I know of the disastrous affects this disease can bring to an individual.

"The alcoholic creates harm to his person, his family, and his whole life by his addiction to drinks," Kelly said.

"Only since 1956 has the American Medical Association defined alcoholism as a disease. Since this time professionals have tried to educate the public to view alcoholism in this context."

Discusses Affect

Discussing the affect of alcohol in the body and its reaction on the brain cells, Kelly diagramed the brain into three sections — fore, mid and hind — and explained the affect of alcohol on each section.

Alcohol invades every cell of the body, he said, and brain cells are uniquely affected.

When alcohol penetrates the forebrain, judgment and inhibitions are anesthesized. When the mid-brain is penetrated, motor control fails. (Motor control refers to basic moving ability skills, walking, raising and lowering of limbs, etc.)

Usually, when a person has consumed enough alcohol so that the mid-brain is affected, he will lose consciousness.

Anyone consuming enough alcohol to penetrate the hind brain will die, Kelly said.

This has occurred, he said, when youths foolishly take part in drinking contests to see who can drink the "mostest the fastest."

Pursuing the clinical aspect, Kelly said that only time will remedy the after affects of too much drinking. There is nothing one can do to force the alcohol out of the bloodstream.

Drink At 14

Research has shown that one of 15 drinkers will become an alcoholic and that most people begin to drink at the age of 14.

"A question and answer period concluded the one-hour discussion.

Kelly is a graduate of Boston University, received his master's degree at Wayne State, and was a doctoral condidate at the University of Michigan when he was recalled to armed service in the 1950s.

Before Nov., 1967, when he accepted the directorship of the alcoholism program at War Memorial Hospital, he was an alcoholism therapist and internist at Hurley Hospital, Flint.

War Memorial Hospial maintains the only medical-alcoholism program in the Upper Peninsula.

Kelly spoke to a professional group following a noon luncheon at Sunny Shores; in the afternoon addressed a junior high group at the high school and concluded his appearances at a meeting in the First Baptist Church last night. He will speak to the upper grades of St. Francis School Friday morning.

Innocent Pleas

Three youths appeared in Justice Court Monday before Justice Howard Magoon and pleaded not guilty to a charge of being minors in possession.

The three — Michael William Jenerou, 19, Rte. 1, Kerry James Chamber, 19, 742 Garden Ave., and Charles Martin Cousineau, 20, 713 Deer St., were released on $100 bond and trial date was set for April 29.

The trio were arrested at 12:35 Monday morning by State Police who stopped their car for a traffic violation and found a quantity of beer in the auto. The three were lodged in the Schoolcraft County Jail before appearing in Justice Court.

Delay Candidate Pick, Says Hare

LANSING (AP) — The dean of Michigan's elected state Democratic officials, Secretary of State James Hare, urged state party leaders to delay publicly announcing their choices among Democratic presidential candidates.

Hare, the Michigan Democrats' leading vote-getter and a winner in statewide contests since 1954, said many Democrats "have the urge to declare for some presidential candidate.

"To me this does not make sense," he added. "It is like betting on a horse race before you know all the horses that are in the race."

Hare suggested Democratic leaders ought to hear what the various candidates have to say on Vietnam, poverty, civil rights and urban rioting before publicly choosing among them.

His own view in Vietnam, Hare said, is that "we should disengage to the best of our ability from the Vietnam war but do so without capitulating completely to the Communists" or making a Munich-type agreement which would encourage "the emergence of more Castros to harass us around the world."

"On the domestic scene," Hare said, "I think the problems of poverty and civil rights must go hand in hand with a return of law and order and an end to rioting and looting.

"Obviously," he added, "our poverty programs have not been too effective to date, and we need to have specific proposals from the candidates as to how to raise the living standards for millions of Americans."

Hare cautioned state Democratic leaders that "to choose up sides at this early date would seem to be making judgments before we have all the facts."

Japan Boosts Auto Production

TOKYO (AP) — Japan's production of automobiles in 1967 increased 38.1 per cent over 1966, totaling 3,406,265 units, a record high, the Japan Manufacturers' Association said Tuesday.

It attributed the record production to rising demands on the domestic market and favorable exports.

Loss In Riots Hit $80 Million

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Insurance Association said Tuesday that the 1967 summer riots in Newark and Detroit resulted in $80 million property loss.

The association, which said it surveyed the two cities at federal government request, estimated loss in Newark at $15.9 million and in Detroit at $64.1 million. From 31 to 35 per cent was uninsured.

The association said last week that initial estimates of loss in 100 cities hit by disorders in the week after the murder of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. were put at $45 million.

In Newark in 1967, the association said Tuesday, the largest number of insurance claims covered liquor stores, bars and cocktail lounges. Detroit's rioters were more interested in supermarkets and other food and grocery stores, it said.

One-and two-family dwellings accounted for only 23 claims in Newark, compared to 276 in Detroit.

Looting was the biggest cause of loss in both cities, the association said, with fires second and vandalism third.

WINDSOR is the new improved variety of Kentucky bluegrass that is now being extensively used in golf course fairways. It feels like velvet, wears like iron, and grows into a thick, green, carpetlike turf.
